

Introducing PRSA San Antonio Online Directory of PR Resources

PRSA San Antonio introduces its all-new online directory to connect those seeking PR counsel with PR firms and independent practitioners.

To help individuals and companies find public relations assistance, the San Antonio PRSA chapter is developing an online directory of PR firms, independent practitioners and related vendors* in the San Antonio and south Texas area.

Tell prospective customers about your services. Find out how you can be listed in this online directory.

Directory Sections – PR Firms, Independent Practitioners and Vendors.

What Your Directory Listing Includes – Name and contact information, Areas of specialization, link to website and email, 100-word description, Logo.

What it Costs – Free in 2012!

How to Sign Up – Complete the online form found at prsanantonio.com > Business Directory and follow instructions to e-mail your logo.

Contact – Christie Goodman, APR, (christie.goodman@idra.org) if you have questions about the directory or if you need to revise your directory listing.

* Vendor is defined broadly to include companies or individuals that provide services or products to public relations professionals, ie. printers, photographers, event rentals, graphic designers
